

Pokot Update

Finally we got our screen wire up,

And then our door fell off!

Door's back on with a few less window panes.

Desert Rose is one of our favorite trees.

We hired people to make us some local chairs.

Church service under our "tamrac" tree

We traded in the one we have used for six years for a newer model.

Making bricks and blocks for our new visitor huts.

Our new bed being built
